Nottingham City Council: Ambition for Cycling

Thursday 21st May 2015, 5.30pm to 8pm
Chaucer Building, Nottingham Trent University
Goldsmith Street, Nottingham NG1 4BU

The launch will begin with a series of brief presentations at 6pm:

- New Vision for Cycling
- Introduction of Nottingham Cycling Champion – Councillor Jane Urquhart
- Cycling Ambition Infrastructure Programme – Portfolio Holder for Planning and Transportation, Councillor Nick McDonald
- City Council Cycling Design Guide development – John Bann, Cycling and Roadspace Transformation Manager
- Summer of Cycling Festival – Hugh White, Director for Sport and Culture

Displays and stands will cover two main areas, focussing on engaging and involving the community, and engaging and involving partners.

Engaging and Involving the Community

- Ambition Programme including preliminary design on Western Cycle Route
- Draft Cycle Design Guide
- Festival of Cycling
- Cycling in Parks
- Working with Schools
- Community Initiatives (Local Sustainable Transport Fund)

Engaging and Involving Partners

- Case Studies:
  Nottingham Trent University
- Mass Participation
- Working with Businesses (Local Sustainable Transport fund)
- City Centre 20mph Speed Limits