Assessment against Local Criteria

1. Age - Early to Mid 20th century 2. Good example of Neo Georgian architecture from the 1920s/30s 3. For communal value for it's role within the community of St Ann's

Reason for Designation

The former community building is adjacent to the listed Oldknow's Factory but there is otherwise very little else left of the St Ann's townscape which pre-dated comprehensive residential redevelopment in the early 1970s. The building recalls the former diverse make up of the buildings and uses within the district.
