Local List Proposal

Description

formerly Bridge Farm. Unfortunately we have not, as yet, been able to see beyond the gates and it is only possible to say what was there in 1925 (SC). Then it comprised two sitting rooms, kitchen, scullery, dairy room, two staircases and five bedrooms. There were also a substantial number of outbuildings including; cow house for 8, cow shed for 6, stables for 3, a calf house and two pigsties. From at least 1841 this house and farm of 26 acres had been rented to Edward Kirkland (47) who was paying £55 15s 0d p.a. rent in 1863. In 1925 it was rented by Mr Ascough when it was sold for £1555 and the fields subsequently
